

CHINA SECTION 301 LIST 3 – PROPOSED PRODUCT EXCLUSION FORMS

The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR) has released draft China Section 301 List 3 Product Exclusion forms for public comments by June 7, 2019. The notice published in the Federal Register indicates that the USTR anticipates that the window for submitting List 3 Product Exclusion requests will begin on or around June 30, 2019.

Clients should consider gathering data and populating the draft China Section 301 List 3 Product Exclusion forms for affected products as soon as possible (even though the form may change), so that Product Exclusion requests may be filed at the earliest possible opportunity. It is noted that there are differences between the proposed Product Exclusion form and prior Product Exclusion forms for China Section 301 Lists 1 and 2.

The USTR notice also provides draft China Section 301 List 3 Product Exclusion response and reply forms, as interested parties may provide responses to support or oppose filed product exclusion requests and the exclusion request filer may file replies. Clients should consider submitting comments on the proposed forms.

Please contact Marshall Miller, Brian Murphy, or Sean Murray with questions or for assistance in gathering data to populate the Section 301 List 3 Product Exclusion forms or preparing comments.
